PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Camp Russell East 20± Acres | Logan County, Oklahoma

Tucked away just north of Guthrie, this secluded 20± acre property offers an outstanding combination of hunting, homesite potential, and productive agricultural ground. Located just off the Cimarron River, tucked away just north of Guthrie, this secluded 20± acre property offers an outstanding combination of hunting, homesite potential, and productive agricultural ground. Located just off the Cimarron River, this property was the historic site of Camp Russell, a logistical support base for troops patrolling the Unassigned Lands of central Oklahoma prior to the Land Run of 1889 (Oklahoma Historical Society: Camp Russell).

This area is well known for producing mature whitetails, and the natural terrain creates a true funnel that consistently moves deer through the property. A Redneck hunting blind is already in place, and the property has a proven history of successful trophy deer harvests, making it ready to enjoy from day one.

One of the unique features of this offering is the flexibility to purchase either 20± acres or the entire 40± acres, giving buyers the opportunity to choose the size that best fits their needs. Whether you're looking for a weekend hunting retreat, a future homesite, or a small farm, this property offers plenty of possibilities.

Power is already available along the county road, and the property features county road frontage on the south side for convenient access. The Cimarron River borders the north, creating excellent wildlife habitat while adding to the property's scenic appeal. Approximately 10± acres along the northern portion lie within the floodplain, leaving ample room on the southern portion for a home, shop, barn, or other improvements.

Beyond its recreational appeal, the property also offers quality agricultural value. Much of the acreage consists of productive Class I and Class II soils, making it well suited for hay production, small grain crops, improved pasture, or grazing a small herd of cattle. Whether your goal is to establish a hobby farm, build a country home, or simply own a beautiful piece of Oklahoma land with exceptional hunting this property checks all the boxes.

Conveniently located approximately 10 minutes from Guthrie, 30 minutes from Edmond, 40 minutes from Stillwater, and 50 minutes to downtown Oklahoma City, you'll enjoy the peace and privacy of the countryside without sacrificing easy access to town.

If you've been searching for a manageable-sized property that offers outstanding hunting, productive soils, build potential, and flexible purchase options, this Logan County tract deserves a look.
