PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

The property consists of approximately 54 acres and features frontage along Fodice Road, providing direct access into the tract. The terrain in this area is generally consistent with East Texas, rolling to gently sloping, with a mix of native soils that may support both recreational and agricultural uses. The property also features White Rock Creek, bounding the East side of the property, and Spring Branch, which is a wet weather branch flowing through the property. The amount of water and hardwoods throughout the tract make it an excellent candidate for recreational uses - hunting, fishing, riding side by sides, etc. The property is located within the FEMA 100yr floodplain.
